

Foster Care Curriculum: Session IV: MATRIX of Curriculum with the ECFMH Competencies

A pre-requisite to this training	Only in supplemental materials	Not covered	Covered at Foundation Level	Covered at Intermediate Level	Covered at Advanced Level	Covered at Specialist Level	Covered as a train the trainer	In training but more detail not available
P	S	O	A	B	C	D	T	X

Curriculum Name & a brief description (if there are modules/sets please complete one matrix for each)	Curriculum areas
Understanding Sexual Abuse and Trauma: This session focuses on sexual abuse which affects many of the children who come into foster care. Participants learn how to keep the children in their care safe and how to handle disclosures by a child who is placed with them.
Philosophy and Professional Orientation
Family-centered, strengths-based and outcomes-based philosophy	A
Self- knowledge, self- assessment and professional development	A
Ethics and confidentiality	A
Effective communication skills	A
Teamwork and collaboration	A
Family Systems
Family characteristics	A
Factors impacting family function	A
Supporting families	A
Child Development
Knowledge of child development	A
Impact of relationships	A
Social and emotional development	A
Assessment
General knowledge of assessment	A
Implementation of assessment	A
Addressing Challenges
Risk and resilience factors in children and families	A
Specialized knowledge for working with vulnerable and identified populations	A
Effective transitions	A
Systems Resources
Resources and systems	A
Laws, Policies and Procedures	A
Program planning and Evaluation	O